BEHIND THE EYE

Between Art and Life

CREATED BY ELLIOT LYLES & DONOVAN JONES

Art does not imitate life.
Art is the creative expression of one's perspective of life.

01 The experiences shape the artist.

02 The artist shapes the work.

03 The work shapes the world.

Behind The Eye asks the one question that connects all three —

● What did it cost?

Every discipline. Every walk of life.

Centered on up-and-coming artists from across the creative spectrum, the series captures the experiences, relationships, and challenges that shape an artist's perspective of the world — and how that perspective begins to shape the world around them.

As each prepares for the biggest opportunity of their professional life, they carry the weight of a personal story that is far from finished.

The journey of self-discovery — and the experiences that inspire the work.

We'll experience love and loneliness through their lenses, the highs of their fields and the lows that come with the ride.

We'll explore relationship dynamics, inherited and generational trauma, and how a life lived has shaped each artist's sense of themselves, the world, and their place in it — and how, through art, they begin to shape that world back.

Each episode follows one artist toward a single, life-changing event on the horizon — and builds to that moment as its finale.

SHOT WITH A CINEMATIC FLAIR — THE ART
& ENVIRONMENTS MADE TO FEEL ALIVE

Three ways in.

01

Interviews

With the family and friends who shaped them — the witnesses to where the work came from.

02

Immersion

Intimate time with the artist in their element, where the making actually happens.

03

Fly on the Wall

Observing the relationship and business dynamics as they play out — for better or for worse.

Six artists. Six disciplines. One question.

The Comeback

after the fall

MUSIC

The Musician

From behind the scenes to center stage. A backstage talent whose viral moment turned them, almost overnight, into one of the defining voices of a generation. But the rise arrived faster than anyone was ready for.

THE HORIZON

A career-defining tour — the stage that proves the moment wasn't a fluke.

THE COST

"When the rise is this fast, what gets left behind?"

BEHIND THE EYE

FASHION

The Designer

Mentored by a living legend, now signing with a global brand and dressing the culture. But the path here cost them their place at the family table — relatives they haven't spoken to in years.

THE HORIZON

A flagship runway event with a household name — their work, finally, at full scale.

THE COST

"What do you trade for the right to make your own work?"

BEHIND THE EYE

PHOTOGRAPHY

The Image- Maker

Turned a childhood marked by addiction and survival into a language of images. Twenty years behind the lens, now launching an agency and chasing the first gallery to bear their own name.

THE HORIZON

Opening their first gallery — the wound, framed and hung for the world to see.

THE COST

"Can you heal the wound and still use it?"

FINE ART · INSTALLATION

The Witness

An interdisciplinary artist who works in places scarred by war and disaster — making the invisible visible, the unsightly tenderly seen. The next installation lands somewhere tense and divided, where simply showing the work is a risk.

THE HORIZON

Mounting a major installation in a volatile place — art as an act of nerve.

THE COST

"What does it take to make the unbearable tenderly seen?"

BEHIND THE EYE

FRAME 13 / 17

The Builder

Dresses the biggest names in music while trying to build a label of their own out of nothing. Every hour spent on someone else's vision is an hour stolen from their own.

THE HORIZON

Debuting their own label at fashion week — stepping out from behind the names they serve.

THE COST

"Do you serve the legend — or become one?"

The Comeback

A viral talent who reached a peak, then lost the passion — and with it the money, the opportunities, and themselves. Now clawing back, with films lined up and a comeback in motion.

THE HORIZON

A return role that decides whether the fall was the end of the story or the middle of it.

THE COST

"What do you owe the version of you that fell?"

BEHIND THE EYE

The work that moves us is almost always paid for in private.

WHY THIS PROJECT

Artists are a vast and varied group, and the stories behind their work go largely untold. Behind The Eye lets those perspectives be shared by the people living them — universal struggles of finding yourself and understanding your place in the world, told by the ones paying the price.

WHY NOW

In a time of noise and division, the series humanizes the people behind the work we consume every day — and reminds us that every perspective worth having was shaped by something, and that seeing clearly was never free.
